- First line: I've found a sweet
- Last line: Pop it in.

The Sweet

I've found a sweet
In my jeans' pocket
It could be a toffee
Or what's left
Of a sherbet rocket.

It's all covered
In fluff and other stuff
And stuck to some stones
I found in the street
But it's still a sweet.

Scrape off the fluff
And the slime
And all that stuff
Till it looks almost clean

And just Pop it in.

experiment

at school we're doing growing things with cress.

sprinkly seeds in plastic pots
of cotton wool.

Kate's cress sits up on the sill
she gives it water.
mine is shut inside the cupboard dark and dry.

now her pot has great big clumps
of green mine hasn't.

Mrs Martin calls it Science
I call it mean.
